

Liz's strength is her ability to combine insightful thinking with her practical experience as a senior executive in the public and private sectors. She has a sophisticated understanding of the strategic leadership of organisations and demonstrates strong skills in corporate governance and financial management.

Liz has held senior positions in professional practice, including 10 years with Deloitte (London); the Federal Government; and the Victorian public sector in CFO and COO roles. She now works as an independent consultant and board member.

She has been involved with the Investment Management Standard (IMS) since its inception, and brings the varied perspectives of a workshop participant, investor, and business case writer to her facilitation. She recently worked with Fankhauser & Associates on a review and update of the IMS support materials for the Department of Treasury and Finance.

Liz is a director of Film Victoria and an external member on the Audit and Risk Committee of Victoria Police. She has also served as a non-executive director on several not-for-profit boards and is a director of Geografia, one of Australia's leaders in the use of sophisticated analytics in economic and demographic modelling.
